Welcome to Parklands Care Homes

"At Parklands, our residents and their families are at the heart of everything we do. We are proud to provide high-quality, person-centred care, delivered by dedicated teams who work every day to help residents live happy and fulfilling lives."

Susie Mackenzie, Managing Director
Parklands Care Homes

Parklands has been caring for older people for more than three decades. Today, we operate 13 care homes across the Highlands, Moray and Aberdeenshire, providing care for more than 500 residents and employing around 1,000 people.

Our homes offer a range of care services including residential, respite, assisted living, nursing, dementia and palliative care. Person-centred care is at the heart of our approach, with care and support tailored to the needs of each individual.

We want our homes to be warm, welcoming places where residents feel at home, remain connected with the people and communities that matter to them, and are supported to live happy and fulfilling lives. Our dedicated colleagues are at the heart of making that happen.

Our Story

Founded in 1993, Parklands has grown from a single care home to become one of the leading care providers in the north and north-east of Scotland.

In 2026, Parklands became part of Myriad Group, which also owns Caring Homes, a leading UK care provider. Parklands continues to operate as a standalone business, led by its local management team and supported by the wider Myriad Group.

Our commitment remains the same: to provide high-quality, person-centred care and to put residents and their families at the heart of everything we do.

Award-Winning Care

Parklands' commitment to quality care and resident wellbeing has been recognised with numerous awards.

In 2020, Parklands was named the UK's Best Smaller Care Home Group and won the Best for Communication award.

Parklands was named Business of the Year at the 2022 Highland Business Awards, where it also received the award for Innovation.

In 2024, Parklands won Best for Communication and Use of Digital Channels at the Care Home Awards and was Highly Commended in the Outstanding Smaller Group Care Provider category.

In 2025, Parklands won the national Best for Wellbeing Award, recognising its commitment to residents' emotional, social and physical wellbeing.

Our commitment to Service Quality

"Care plans were detailed, and person-centred. When the needs of someone changed, their care documents reflected this change. Regular six-monthly reviews took place - this meant care was planned and reviewed in a meaningful way."

Care Inspectorate, May 2025

Each of our residents is a remarkable individual with quite specific needs and interests. Therefore, at Parklands you'll find the emphasis is on person-centred care. We work with you and your family to create a tailored care package that ensures you get the most out of your new life.

Before moving in

Moving home can be a daunting experience for anyone so we work with you and your family to ensure the move into your new care home is stress free. We can arrange for you and your loved ones to visit the home, see the facilities first hand and meet staff and other residents - so that when you do move in, you already feel at home.

Moving day

Our dedicated staff will be on hand to ensure you have everything you need from day one. Your friends and family are welcome to join you on moving day as you settle into your new home. We encourage residents to bring personal belongings and treasured mementos into the home; it is also possible to bring some of your own furniture.

Visiting

Our care homes are friendly, open, welcoming environments. We encourage relatives and friends to join us for activities and social events, and to take residents on visits into the local community. For those who live at a distance, we can facilitate telephone or video calls.

Your personal care plan

Prior to admission, we meet with you, your relatives and any health and social work professionals involved in your care to discuss your care needs, including any specific health, mobility or dietary requirements you may have.

We ask you to prepare a document that tells us more about you, your interests and your background - this helps ensure we can plan meaningful activities that will engage and inspire you.

We also carry out a robust pre-admission assessment before you move in. This helps ensure that we can meet all of your care needs and provide a tailored plan that is right for you.

We use person-centred digital platforms to record and monitor your daily care. This ensures that staff can access and update your care records round the clock.

We understand that your care needs change over time so we review your care plan on a regular basis to ensure it continues to meet your needs.
Your relatives will be kept fully informed of any changes to your care plan and will have an opportunity to suggest any changes they feel might be appropriate. Health and social work partners also routinely provide input as part of these ongoing reviews.

Quality assured

Parklands operates its own Quality Management System, audited by senior managers and discussed at regular meetings to ensure that we continue to meet our regulatory requirements in areas such as medication, nutrition and infection control. Our homes are subject to regular independent inspections by the industry regulator, the Care Inspectorate.

Reports are available at each home or can be found at careinspectorate.com >

Complaints

We work hard to ensure that residents' care needs are fully met. On the rare occasion when a complaint is made, it will be investigated thoroughly and resolved promptly.
We want you and your loved ones to have confidence in our service.
Full details of our complaints procedure can be found here >

Funding

We provide care for residents who are funded by their local authority, as well as those who are privately funded.
If you would like to discuss our fees, please contact us on 01479 788000 or email info@parklandsgroup.com >

Waiting lists

Our care homes are very popular and it may not always be possible to secure a room at the time of your choosing. We recommend that you join our waiting list and once a vacancy arises, we will contact you.

Live life to the full at Parklands Care Homes

Parklands' care homes are full of life. We aim to create a warm family atmosphere where residents are made to feel at home. With the support and encouragement of staff and family members, many of our residents are able to maintain a relatively independent lifestyle.

Inclusive

It is important that residents and their loved ones have an opportunity to raise issues with us. We hold regular meetings where residents are invited to provide feedback on any aspects of their care and well-being. We want you to feel that your contribution is valued and recognised. It's your home, after all. This inclusive approach helps ensure the smooth running of our homes and gives you and your loved ones peace of mind that you are in good hands.

Dining at Parklands

Food is an important part of daily life in our homes. It provides routine, supports physical wellbeing and brings people together, encouraging conversation and social interaction.

Our meals are freshly prepared each day, with menus inspired by the flavours of the north of Scotland, a region renowned for its farming and seafood. We take pride in sourcing high-quality local ingredients wherever possible.

Dining is relaxed and unhurried. Residents can choose from two options at lunch and dinner, with weekly menus displayed throughout the home. Those who prefer can enjoy meals in the comfort of their own room. Fresh fruit, snacks and refreshments are available throughout the day, along with a selection of home bakes.
Our chefs take the time to get to know residents, learning their favourite dishes and any dietary requirements. Meals can be adapted to individual tastes and needs, helping make every dining experience enjoyable. Birthdays, anniversaries and other special occasions are celebrated with home-made cakes and treats prepared by our team.

Active lives, active minds
Parklands nurtures residents' emotional and social well-being through tailored activities, meaningful connections, and active community integration. From pop-up tea-rooms to podcasts, playgroups to Pride events, Parklands' homes are not just places of care but vibrant communities where engaging, creative, and meaningful activities thrive, enriching the daily lives of our residents.

Local musicians, artists, dancers and even therapy pets regularly visit our homes to entertain our residents. Children from nearby nurseries and schools are also welcome visitors, and many of our homes offer parent and toddler groups and host community coffee mornings.

Our homes are a safe, inclusive space where everyone is encouraged to engage, participate, and build meaningful relationships in a warm, supportive environment.

A minibus is available for days out to the cinema, nearby visitor attractions, the beach, local ceilidhs or for a spot of lunch or shopping. We prioritise meaningful activities that engage and inspire our residents, whether it's visiting cherished local landmarks, revisiting treasured childhood places, performing in our choirs or joining a swimming club.

Religious services are held in most homes on a regular basis. Arrangements can also be made for residents to attend their own local church, wherever possible.

Award winning activities
Parklands was nominated for a Scottish Care Award in 2022 in recognition of its commitment to meaningful person-centred activities. There were also nominations at the 2023 Caring UK Awards and the 2024 Stars of Social Care Awards.

In 2025, Parklands won Best for Wellbeing at the national Care Home Awards for its commitment to residents' emotional, social and physical wellbeing.

Inspiring People Who Care

"I tell everyone I know that I work in a care home. It's something to be proud of."

James Irvine,
Domestic/Pantry Assistant, Speyside

Watch People make Parklands Video >

People make the difference at Parklands. We are proud of our dedicated, professional team of employees. They are the reason for Parklands' success.

We employ our staff on the strength of their emotional intelligence and their willingness to learn and adapt in a fast paced and ever-changing environment. When employees join Parklands, they become part of our extended family. And as family, we support them throughout their career journey.

We provide high quality SVQ training plans that allow staff to learn at their own pace, and our structured career development programme ensures that staff can progress through the organisation.

We work closely with local schools and colleges, as well as agencies like Developing the Young Workforce, to provide new opportunities for young people interested in working in the care sector.

Burnbank Care Home

Parklands in Buckie was where our story began over 30 years ago. At Parklands - and its sister home Burnbank - residents are regular visitors to local shops, cafes and attractions. Both homes have a busy programme of in-house events, including music festivals and fun days. Residents also have access to their own garden shop.

Parklands and Burnbank are rated Grade 5 (very good) for the way they support residents' wellbeing and for the quality of their setting. Inspectors praised the home's person-centred approach, noting that staff created "wonderful and memorable experiences" through special outings and activities tailored to residents' interests and aspirations.

Parklands offers 27 bedrooms, a dining room, two day rooms and a TV lounge.

Burnbank offers 22 en-suite rooms, including four assisted living suites, a spacious dining room and communal lounge.

About Buckie

Buckie is best known for its harbour and fishing, not least for its prized shellfish which is sold around the world. The town enjoys magnificent views overlooking the Moray Firth and is a popular location for dolphin watching. The coastal scenery is breathtaking at any time of the year and the town is a perfect base from which to explore the Whisky and Castle Trails of Moray and Aberdeenshire and the North East 250 route.
